

Conditions of participation

- All activities of Way To Kite BV are supervised by IKO certified and experienced instructors.
- The student is aware of certain risks of the sport and that participation in these activities is at their own risk.
- Participant declares to be in good condition. Injuries or other health matters should be reported in advance. This so that Way To Kite BV can give advice on participation.
- Participating during pregnancy is not allowed.
- To participate in water activities a swimming certificate is required.
- Way To Kite provides life jackets and helmets. Participant is required to wear this during activities when needed due to safety.
- Participant must always follow the instructions of the instructors. The consequences of not doing it - is the responsibility of the participant.
- When participant damages materials on purpose without listening to an instructor of Way To Kite BV, this is responsibility of the participant.

- If there is any damage or injury to the participant or caused by the participant third parties through participation in the course, Way To Kite is not liable unless the damage has been caused through the employee of Way To Kite.
- Alcohol / drug use prior to or during the activities are not allowed and is not toleratable.